

MANY SKIRMISHES.

Except For These Quietude Still Prevails in the Vicinity of Mukden.

RUSSIANS TAKE MANY PRISONERS.

Near Inpu the Japanese Were Shelled Out of Their Position and Suffered Heavy Losses.

The Japs Are Sending Out Large Parties of Scouts Daily With the Object of Checking the Russian Raids.

Mukden, Sept. 29.—Many skirmishes and reconnaissances are reported to headquarters here, but except for these, quiet still prevails. In the fighting that has been taking place the Russian scouts have almost invariably shown superior to the Japanese, both in riding and fighting.

The Japanese movement up the Taitse river appears to be by a comparatively small force. Raiding parties from the Russian army bring in many prisoners. Reinforcements are arriving rapidly. Over one thousand convalescents have returned to duty.

The railway is in good working condition. Officers are distributing the reserve of stores that were brought up from Liao Yang, as adequate supplies are now coming in from the north. Details of the fighting near Inpu, between Bentlaputzo and the railroad on September 26, show that Gen. Mischenko's scouts, accompanied by a battery of artillery, attacked a Japanese position where there were a battery of artillery, two squadrons of cavalry and two companies of infantry. The Japanese were shelled out of their position on a hill and suffered heavy loss. As they retired the Russians occupied the hill until nightfall, when they, too, retired under cover of darkness, having lost only three men.

The Japanese are sending out large parties of scouts daily with the object of checking the Russians' continuous raids.

The march of Gen. Rennenkampf's Cossacks around the Japanese right flank, which was mentioned in these dispatches on September 26, was a remarkable performance. Accompanied by a battery of artillery, the Cossacks covered 80 miles in 52 hours. They struck the enemy north of Bentlaputzo on September 19, and thence continued south, circling the Japanese right flank and coming unexpectedly on the Japanese line of communication near Bensipu, on the bank of the Taitse river, September 22, inflicting considerable damage. The Japanese were thrown into great confusion but retired with a loss of only two killed.

VANDALS AT THE FAIR.

Several Valuable Oil Paintings of the Czar Mutilated.

St. Louis, Sept. 29.—When the Russian exhibit in the varied industries building at the World's fair was opened Wednesday it was discovered that several valuable oil paintings of Emperor Nicholas had been torn from the wall and mutilated by some unidentified person or persons. Another portrait of the emperor, a handsome and valuable panel done in colored silk, has been torn from its support and subjected to the greatest indignity. The oil paintings were torn and there were marks showing that the features of the emperor had been stamped upon. The vandalism was reported at once to the exposition authorities and an investigation ordered.

MULLIGAN POISONING CASE.

Will Be Prosecuted to the End and the Guilty Man Punished.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 29.—The Mulligan poisoning case will be prosecuted to the end and the guilty man punished. A committee composed of C. J. Bronston and Maj. D. G. Falconer, prominent lawyers, was called to investigate the affair by Judge Mulligan. This committee was at Mulligan's home until nearly midnight investigating the case. When the committee was appointed Judge Mulligan requested that they make a searching investigation and point out his duty to him and that he would perform that duty. This statement means that if James Mulligan is guilty he will be prosecuted. A theory was published in an afternoon paper that some one other than James Mulligan induced the Negro Mitchell to put poison in the salmon in order to create suspicion upon James and ruin his reputation. At this time absolutely no suspicion rests upon any other person. Col. Bronston was quoted Wednesday morning as saying that he believed the Negro lied when he made the confession. He authorized a correspondent to say that he has never expressed an opinion as to James Mulligan's guilt or innocence or to Mitchell's veracity. Mitchell gave out another statement Wednesday that only he and James Mulligan were connected with attempt to poison the family. Due to alarm felt by the family, the home of Judge James H. Mulligan, on whom attempt to poison was made, is so great that the police department was asked to place a guard about Maxwell place and this was done, officers spending the night there Tuesday night.

CREATED INDIGNATION.

The Freeing of Murderer Buchter Dy Acting Gov. Thorne.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 29.—Acting Gov. W. P. Thorne's pardon of Clem Buchter, who killed his daughter and shot his wife, has aroused great indignation here, where the crime was committed. Commonwealth Attorney Joseph M. Huffaker said Buchter slew his own daughter because she refused to submit to his unnatural passion, and shot her mother, who attempted to prevent murder. Lawyer M. O'Neal, who defended Buchter, said the pardon was obtained without his knowledge. Acting Gov. Thorne, in a statement, said he pardoned Buchter believing that he was insane, and that the shot which killed the daughter was not intended for her. Dr. Hugh E. Tobin, the physician and surgeon of the state prison, denied that he had verified a statement made to acting Gov. Thorne that Buchter had locomotor ataxia, that his eyesight is about gone and that his mind is affected. Dr. Tobin said that Buchter was neither blind nor insane.

FICTITIOUS LETTER

Donnelly Denies Receiving a Communication Arraigning Labor Unions From the President.

ADMINISTRATION SO NOTIFIED.

William Naffily, National Secretary of the Socialist Party, Issued a Statement Wednesday.

Says His Party Has No Share in the Responsibility Incurred By the Circulation of the Fraudulent Document.

Washington, Sept. 29.—Secretary Loeb Wednesday night made public a dispatch from United States Attorney Bethea, at Chicago, regarding the letter purporting to have been addressed by President Roosevelt to Michael Donnelly, of Chicago, president of the Butchers and Meat Cutters' union, and severely arraigning labor unions. The dispatch says that Mr. Donnelly received no such letter. The telegram follows:

"Chicago, Sept. 28, 1904.—Hon. William Loeb, Jr., Secretary to the President, Washington: I have seen Mr. Donnelly. He, of course, received no such letter as that referred to in the morning papers and expressed his desire to find the person who first printed it as a genuine letter and wishes to do anything in his power to counteract its extended effects. S. H. Bethea, U. S. Attorney."

Chicago, Sept. 29.—William Naffily, national secretary of the socialist party, issued a statement Wednesday in which he says: "The socialist party has no share in the responsibility incurred by the circulation of the fictitious letter said to have been written to Michael Donnelly by President Roosevelt. The latter bears on its face the evidence of its own spuriousness, for, even if the president entertained the views attributed to him, it would have been eminently tactless and foolish for him to have given them out in that form at this time. Every piece of literature issued by the national socialist party bears the imprint of the national committee and we are willing to accept any responsibility its issuance may bring. Our indictment is of the capitalist system and we can find enough of truth to charge against it and both old parties without resorting to dishonest or questionable methods to make our case."

London, Sept. 29.—The Daily Telegraph, in an editorial Thursday morning, says that Hugh Gurney, third secretary of the British embassy at Washington, who was fined by Justice Phelps, of Lee, Mass., for exceeding the automobile speed limit, was bound to stand upon his diplomatic rights in order to avoid creating a precedent, and that now that amends have been made it is to be hoped if Mr. Gurney inadvertently contravened a law he will tender an apology for his unconscious offense.

THE RACE PROBLEM.

Question Discussed By Rev. Dr. Strange and B. T. Washington.

New York, Sept. 29.—Before an audience that filled St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal church, and in the presence of Booker T. Washington Wednesday night, Rev. Dr. Strange, bishop coadjutor-elect of the diocese of South Carolina declared that one set factor in any real and practical solution of the Negro problem was the entire separation of the races in social, scholastic, religious and domestic affairs. When Mr. Washington arose to speak he virtually agreed with the bishop by saying the problem could not be settled by amalgamation or by deportation of the Negroes, but by earnest sympathy and co-operation of the races.

HUNTER'S DISCOVERY.

Part of a Human Skeleton and Charred Remains of Clothing.

Shawneetown, Ill., Sept. 29.—While hunting in the woods near here, Geo. Porter, a farmer, has found a part of a human skeleton and the charred remains of clothing lying in a pile of ashes. THE DIVORCE LAW.

Bishop Henry C. Potter Attacks It in Vigorous Terms.

New York, Sept. 29.—Bishop Henry C. Potter attacked divorce in vigorous terms in his report Wednesday in the annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of New York. He declared that unless the church set itself against the spread of the evil society would relapse into a state of practical barbarism, and he urged the clergy to set itself against divorce, which he characterized as a "Godless license which flings aside the most sacred vows because of vexatious uncongeniality."

JURISTS CONGRESS

Universal Convention of Lawyers Under Auspices of the American Bar Association.

FOR INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

Ex-Secretary of State John W. Foster, LL. D., Made the Principal Address on the Subject.

Senor Don Emilio Velasco, of Mexico, and J. H. Ralston, LL. D., of Washington, D. C., Followed With Interesting Addresses.

St. Louis, Sept. 29.—The first universal congress of lawyers and jurists held under the auspices of the American Bar association convened Wednesday in festival hall at the conclusion of the American Bar association convention. Eminent lawyers and jurists from all over the world were in attendance. The congress was called to order by F. W. Lehman, of St. Louis, chairman of the exposition-committee on congresses. President D. R. Francis welcomed the congress to the exposition and introduced the president of the congress, Hon. David J. Brewer, associate justice of the supreme court of the United States. President Brewer was greeted with an ovation of applause.

Former Secretary of State John W. Foster, LL. D., was introduced and made the principal address on the subject of international arbitration and The Hague tribunal. He said in part: "It has been reported in the press that the secretary of the navy has announced himself as in favor of a navy equal to the greatest navy in the world. I trust he has been misunderstood. Our government should hold itself ready to enter into an agreement for international disarmament and not to the increase of the navy. This country should hold itself to other and far more peaceful pursuits in the settlement of strife than to the making of implements of destruction and death."

He then entered into an explanation of the failure of The Hague conference to effect an agreement on the subject of international disarmament. He expressed deep regret that the fruits of war made necessary the permanent increase of the American army and called attention to the prospective large increase in the annual expenditures of the government for the navy.

Senor Don Emilio Velasco, of Mexico, and J. H. Ralston, LL. D., of Washington, followed with discussions of the subject presented by Mr. Foster. Senor Velasco said in part: "The idea of international arbitration is not the creation of one man nor of any set of men, however eminent they may be, but it is the result of universal sentiment. International arbitration has at the present time three forms: (1) Arbitration in its nature transitory and for determined matters; (2) Compromissory clauses inserted in treaties to decide the questions which the interpretation and execution of the treaty may give rise to; (3) Permanent and obligatory arbitration. Treaties of arbitration in these three forms have increased in number progressively, very especially in the first two forms. The last form is the one which offers the most resistance and various attempts made to establish permanent arbitration have proven failures."

"There are two difficulties which beset arbitration in these present times the resistance on the part of some governments to permanent arbitration and the difficulty of giving judicial form to questions of a political nature. The tribunal of The Hague, created by the collective action of the nations, with its character of permanency and with rules of procedure previously defined has in its support a great moral force and presents all the advantages and all the facilities which constituted tribunals offer. It is a tribunal open to all who ask its judgment and its examples and its practices will be an inducement to all the nations to entrust to it their difficulties for settlement."

INTERNATIONAL LAW CONGRESS.

Announcement of a Second Call For Peace Conference Discussed.

Edinburgh, Sept. 29.—The conference of the constitute of international law, which began here September 22, concluded Wednesday. President Roosevelt's announcement that he will shortly call a second peace conference at The Hague was discussed. While the conference did not pass a further definite resolution on the subject, it gave evidence of undoubted sympathy with this effort to further the cause of arbitration.

EVENING BULLETIN. DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY. ROSSER & MCCARTHY, Proprietors. THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1904.

Weather Forecast.
 Fair, cooler to-night and Friday.

With a growing deficit in the revenues of the government, and the appropriations larger than ever before in time of peace, the taxpayers must look forward to either a return to the war taxes, or enforced economy. Under the present administration the expenditures for the army and navy alone are $135,000,000 greater than for the last year of the Cleveland administration, and other Departments are run on about the same extravagant calibre. More taxes or economy in expenditures will soon be imperative. While the appropriations for pensions were $13,221,000 less and the expenditures for Rivers and Harbors $8,643,000 less under Roosevelt for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1904, than under Cleveland in 1894-'5, the appropriations for actual warlike purposes were $183,569,000 greater. On the whole, Roosevelt's administration has been nearly twice as expensive as Cleveland's, and the increase has been due nearly all to militarism.

The Democratic State campaign was opened at Versailles Monday afternoon with a speech by Senator J. C. S. Blackburn. A large crowd was present. Senator Blackburn spoke nearly two hours. He devoted a considerable portion of his remarks to President Roosevelt and the latter's policy towards the South, and declared there does not live on earth a more malignant, bitter hater of the South than the present Chief Executive. In conclusion he warned the Democrats against overconfidence, reminding them that many thousand Kentucky Republicans failed to vote last year who would be at the polls early this time, and urged unceasing efforts.

Trials of Motherhood

393 Broad Street.
 Philadelphia, Pa., June 12, 1903.
 I suffered for nine years with various troubles making life a burden to myself as well as to my family. During that time I had two miscarriages and although we longed for a child to bless our home this seemed impossible. I had constant bearing-down pains in the pelvic organs and a pulling through my limbs with frequent headaches. I felt sick at my stomach and vomited frequently and no medicine helped me until I tried Wine of Cardui.
 Then my general health improved, the pains gradually lessened and after 18 weeks I was well. I am now the happy mother of a boy eighteen months old and my husband joins me in sending heartfelt thanks to you for your splendid medicine. Without it, I would have been a childless, instead of a happy mother.
Mrs. Frederick Nirdlinger
 CHAPLAIN, ST. ANDREW'S ASSOCIATION.

WINE of CARDUI

Wine of Cardui is the most successful menstrual regulator. By regulating menstruation, Wine of Cardui banishes inflammation from the entire female organism and the strengthened ligaments bring the organs back to their proper place. This is what Wine of Cardui did for Mrs. Nirdlinger. It banished the racking pains and burning inflammation and brought her relief. She was restored to health and strength and gives Wine of Cardui the credit of making her able to become a happy mother. This medicine equips a woman for every duty of wifehood and motherhood. There are many suffering women who think that health can never be theirs because they cannot secure the services of a great specialist, but we want to say right here that while Mrs. Nirdlinger lives in Philadelphia, a great medical center, she depended on Wine of Cardui for a cure and she was cured. This same medicine is within your reach. Will you take it?

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN."

Party of Eastern People at Washington Tuesday Gathering Reminiscences of Mrs. Stowe's Work.

Some ladies from Buffalo, New York, were at Washington Tuesday looking up reminiscences of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's visit there years ago. There's no key left to unlock the mysteries of those long ago times, excepting possibly the key to "Uncle Tom's Cabin" itself. Doubtless Mrs. Stowe was at Washington, did stay at Colonel Marshall Key's and witnessed the sale of negroes in the court house yard, and her book was written from data then gotten. Our correspondent at Washington says:

"We did have the 'key' spoke of and might be able yet to find it, but it has been so long since we read it that we have almost forgotten what was in it."

"Our kinsman, George W. Forman, who at the time the book made such a furor, came across the key at New Orleans, where he was a merchant, and sent it to us."

There was nothing that made such excitement and feeling, both North and South, as Mrs. Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and it's nothing more than natural that some interest should attach to the place where she is commonly supposed to have gotten her idea of writing that famous work of fiction.

GAVE 'EM THE SLIP.

Colored Suspect Makes His Escape From Officers Through a Very Shrewd Trick.

Reuben Warner, a colored boy, who worked for Mr. Richard W. Wood, near Washington, was arrested for the theft of a watch and money, committed at that gentleman's home some time Sunday, and his house was searched for the stolen property Wednesday morning.

While the search was in progress, the boy's mother made such outcry that he asked leave of the officer to go and quiet her.

The lad went to her room, and not returning on time, investigation revealed the fact that he had passed out the back way and escaped, this having been a ruse to deceive the searching party.

No property was found, but it's very evident who the thief was.

Save money. Buy piano from Gerbrich.

Mr. A. P. Lukens of Needmore purchased the Arthur farm of 193 acres in the Shannon neighborhood at public sale Wednesday, paying $94 an acre for the place.

"Sea of Galilee" is the subject of Rev. R. E. Moss' lecture for the Y. M. C. A. outdoor meeting next Sunday at 2 o'clock. Mr. Gerbrich has kindly loaned a piano for the afternoon. Outten's Orchestra will furnish the music. No doubt there will be twice the number of people of last Sunday upon the Esplanade to hear the address and music. All are welcome.

One man bet another that he could not move an ordinary brick tied to the end of a cord two or three miles long. A straight and level road was selected for the trial. The brick was not moved, and the man lost his bet for a large amount. It was stated by some one present that the brick, although weighing only seven pounds would from a distance of two or three miles represent a dead weight of nearly a ton.

HARD TO EXPLAIN.

If This Had Occurred Anywhere Else Than Maysville Our Readers Might Doubt It.

It's hard to explain how the public can continue to doubt in the face of such evidence. If this were published anywhere else than in Maysville, if the statement given below went the rounds of the press, readers in Boston or New Orleans might doubt it. But it's very different when the testimony given comes from a friend, perhaps a neighbor. It is public expression of a local citizen and can be easily investigated.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S

Visit Is Rapidly Drawing To A Close.

very much to the regret of quite a few people who say they are not quite ready to buy an instrument at the present time. BARE FACTS ARE SELF EVIDENT.

If you will call at John I. Winter's store and look at the bare spaces wherein pianos formerly sat, you can see and form some idea of the number of families that Mr. Chamberlain has made happy. We say made happy, and we say it wisely.

Of the many instruments he has placed in good homes upon this visit, not a one of them was bought within fifty dollars of their value, and in some cases parties saved as much as $100. Mr. Chamberlain truly hopes to have the pleasure of a personal acquaintance ere his visit here closes and allow us to say at this point that you should be just to yourself as well as your posterity, and justice demands that you devote enough time to investigate Mr. Chamberlain's proposition.

Remember Mr. Chamberlain is visiting our branch store with full authority to act upon his judgement. That is enough said. Mr. Chamberlain hopes to see you ere his visit closes. Yours faithfully,
